2. My words from you I cannot hide,
 you hem me in on ev'ry side;
 O wond'rous knowledge, awesome might,
 unfathomed depth, unmeasured height!

5. If deepest darkness cover me, to you the darkness light shall be;
 if light about me be as night
 to you both night and day are bright.

3. Where can I from your Spirit be?
 Where can I from your presence flee?
 In heav'n? it is your dwelling fair;
 in death's abode? lo, you are there.

4. If I the wings of morning take,
 and in the seas my dwelling make,
 e'en there your faithful hand shall lead,
 your right hand, Lord, is holding me.
